The Adjournment.

The resolution to adjourn in two weeks was carried through the House almost unanimously this afternoon, but nobody need expect adjournment at that time or even in four weeks from now unless a change of judgment can be worked in the Senate. That body has laid out business enough to last till the end of April, certain.

Sentence Removed.

The first general order of the new Secretary of the Navy removes the sentence passed by Secretary Welles upon Captain Napoleon Collins for neglect of duty in losing the Sacramento off the coast of Japan a long time ago. This order will please naval men, most of whom thought Welles's sentence very harsh and cruel. Collins gets all his back pay restored.

Contested Seats.

The House Committee on Elections, which was announced to-day, will hold their first meeting on Monday, and then pass upon the certificates of Georgians, who claim seats in the House. The first contested seat case to come up is that of Covode, and next that of Myers of Philadelphia.

Another Bill Pocketed.

The bill adding two Majors to the Judge Advocate Corps of the army, is one of those which it has been discovered Ex-President Johnson pocketed last week, though he promised army officers that he would give it his signature.

The State Department.

There seems to be no doubt that Hamilton Fish will accept the State Department, but that he will not enter on duty till the last of next week.

Lieut. Gen. Sheridan

Arrived this afternoon and will stay some days. He approves of Longstreet's appointment at New Orleans.

Sickles for Mexico.

The most important news of to-day is that General Sickles is going to Mexico as our minister, and the President said to-day that his nomination would be laid before the Senate on Monday or Tuesday. General Butterfield, he said, would be given a foreign mission, but what one it will be was not stated.

WASHINGTON, March 12, 1869.

THE CAUCUS OF PENNSYLVANIANS.

Some particulars of the caucus of the Pennsylvania Senators and Representatives have been given. It was unanimously agreed that each member should confine himself to his own district, so far as matters local to that district were concerned, and, where there were no Republicans, that those districts should be administered upon by the Senators; that where there were appointments at large, or covering more than one district, that they should meet in caucus and unite upon a recommendation. Where any one desires a foreign appointment, he is at liberty to go it alone for himself or his friends, as there is no rule by which any particular number of appointments should be given to any State, and all are at liberty to get what they can. A committee consisting of five, was appointed to call upon the President, and ask that the delegation, as a delegation, be heard before he makes any nominations at large for Pennsylvania. The committee appointed was Messrs. Scott, Cameron, Kelley, Scofield and Morrell, and they were to meet at ten A. M. Tuesday, at Willard's. [illegible]

After a short time the President, accompanied by General Dent, entered the East room and was introduced to the officers by Vice Admiral Porter. They all shook him by the hand. Prominent among those present were Vice Admiral Porter, Rear Admirals Shubrick, Smith, Goldsborough, Dahlgren, Poor, Howard and Powell. While the naval officers were exchanging salutations in the East room, the officers of the army, headed by Ex-Secretary Schofield and General Sherman, entered the White House and were shown into the East room. General Sherman approached the President, and the two shook hands warmly and vigorously. He then introduced the officers, in turn, all of whom were profuse in their congratulations. Among the distinguished officers present were Generals [illegible], Emory, Meigs, Ferry, Barnes, Thomas, Hardie, Holabird, &c. During the interview Secretary of War Rawlins entered the East room and was instantly surrounded by an eager crowd of officers, both of the army and navy, who earnestly congratulated him upon his appointment to the War office.

AN exchange says: It is a favorite theory of novelists and speculative philosophers that while the age is fertile in genius and great deeds, and while there is an abundance of heroes, martyrs, and enthusiasts, common sense is becoming a rare quality, and that one of the most difficult tasks is to find men gifted with the power of acting wisely and circumspectly in novel and trying positions. Whether these strictures are true or false, as applied to the century, it is certain that if such a rule does prevail General Grant is a brilliant exception. His clear judgement has never been distracted for one instant by high honors and responsibilities, and he brings to the administration of civil affairs the same cool and cheerful steadiness of purpose, and the same skillful adaptation of means to important ends, that made him the conqueror of the Rebellion.

HAVANA, March 12.—The United States steamer Contocook, flag ship of Admiral Hoff, leaves this port to-morrow for Key West, but will return in a few days. The United States squadron in the West Indies is insignificant in point of numbers as compared with the English and French fleets. News from Santo Espiritu is that Col. Puello had issued an address to the effect that the time of conciliation was ended.

THE Tribune publishes a letter from a correspondent professing friendly feelings towards Mr. Hale, our Minister to Spain, but who at the same time intimates that Mr. Hale has outlived his usefulness. The correspondent asserts that his faculties are impaired, the result of a severe illness. In addition to this, it is charged that he has no sympathy with the revolution, and is openly hostile to the Republican movement. If it is true that Mr. Hale is unable to discharge the duties devolving upon him in such a manner as to reflect credit upon himself or his government, it is time his place should be filled with a man every way competent. But we do not see the force of the objection based upon his refusal to participate in the political affairs of a foreign country.

ST. JOSEPH is the mart of the "Michigan Peach Belt," on Lake Michigan, in the vicinity of St. Joseph, one of the oldest settled towns in the northwest, the site of the old Jesuit Mission, founded by Marquette, is found the most desirable location for this purpose. Situated at the mouth of the St. Joseph river, with a good harbor, and only five hours' sail from Chicago, is a locality furnishing all the requisite of a fruit growing region—sandy soil, genial climate and water transportation to a near and desirable market, that either consumes or transports to more remote regions, on its numerous railroads, vast quantities of fruit. Although the business is in its infancy, there were shipped from this port last season, 500,000 baskets of peaches, 35,000 bushels of small fruit, together with great quantities of pears, plums, grapes, cherries, quinces, apples, &c.

A CORRESPONDENT describing Colorado says "there is a singular disinclination to go early to bed, and few people rise early in the morning. These peculiarities are doubtless the influences of climate." In this part of the country these peculiarities are commonly ascribed to the influences of laziness.

CITY MATTERS.

The Essay Contest at the Pittsburgh Female College—The Prize Awarded to Miss Fleming.

The Chapel of the Pittsburgh Female College was crowded last evening by a highly intelligent and appreciative audience assembled to witness the essay contest. The exercises were most entertaining, and great credit was due to those who participated in the contest, and also to those who furnished the musical portion of the entertainment.

The exercises commenced with an instrumental duet by Misses Alexander and Kimball, after which prayer was offered by Rev. W. H. Locke.

The following programme was then observed: Vocal Trio, by Misses Sawyer and Van Hook; Essay, "God calls the workmen Home, but still the work goes on," by Miss A. Lindsay; song by Miss Ella Kimball; Essay, "Goethe," by Miss Anna Dickson; Vocal Music, by Miss Maggie McMullen; Essay—"Earth and its Beauties," by Miss Maggie Duff; song, by Miss Emma Sawyer; instrumental duett, with description, by Prof. and Mrs. Blessner and Miss L. Pershing; Essay—"Ruins," by Miss Maggie Patterson; song, by Miss Kimball; Essay—"Life," by Miss Mary Fleming; instrumental duett, by Miss Darrah and Bowman.

The judges, Rev. Dr. H. Miller, F. B. Penniman, Esq., and Rev. J. M. Stuckenberg, retired for consultation, and while they were deliberating the audience was entertained with vocal and instrumental music.

The Judges after they returned announced their decision as in favor of Miss Fleming, and Rev. W. Locke in a brief and appropriate address presented Miss F. with the prize which was a beautiful writing desk. He said that while the essays each possessed peculiar merit it was the opinion of the Judges that the prize should be awarded to Miss Fleming. He had been informed that the desk contained all the material necessary for writing, paper, pens, sealing wax, etc. It was qualified to do everything but think, and he would venture to say from the essay of the successful contestant, that she could supply the deficiency.

Without disparagement to any of the other essays, that of Miss Patterson upon the subject of "Ruins" was worthy of especial notice, and evidently left a most favorable impression upon the minds of the audience as possessing more than usual merit. Besides, it was read in an excellent manner. The essay of Miss Dickson on the "Life and Character of Goethe" was carefully written and well received.

A Disorderly Quieted.

An old German named Van Tassel, from some point up the Monogahela river came to this city yesterday for the purpose of meeing his wife, whom he expected to arrive here from the West this morning. In anticipation of seeing his "frow," he commenced putting himself in a hilarious mood, and the result was he found himself at a late hour in the evening in an oblivious condition in the lock up. On awakening he couldn't undrstand the situation and commenced inquiry of everybody who came within speaking distance of him, "Vat to dyvel does dis mean?" A wag who was tired of his repeated outcries told him that he was insane and was to be taken to Dixmont to-day. The Dutchman became infuriated. He said he did not understand the matter; he had come to the city expecting to meet his wife who was coming from the West, and couldn't understand why he should be treated in this manner. He was then told that his idea of coming after his wife was a mental delusion, and that it would be necessary to send him to Dixmont. He thereupon wanted a physician, and one was extemporized for his benefit, and on an examination of the pulse pronounced the man hopelessly insane. The German looked bewildered and said, "Mein Got I shows you in the morning ven mine frow arrives." He, however, subsided and maintained better order for the balance of the night.

PITTSBURGH OFFICE SEEKERS.—A Washington dispatch says: Among those from Pittsburgh who are seeking foreign appointments are the following: J. Howard desires a Consulship at some point on the Mediterranean; E. Williams, the Consulship at Hamburg; G. Braun, the Consulship at Bremen; G. T. McCormick, the Consulship at Havre; Mr. Woodwell, some choice Consulship.

REPORTED FOR COWARDICE.—A member of Mayor Brush's police force was reported to his Honor yesterday for cowardice. The officer making the report stated that he had called the accused to assist him in making an arrest, but he refused to lend him any aid. Another officer was then called and the prisoner taken to the lock-up. A hearing will be had in the matter.

Heavy Discount on Flour.

It may seem strange that grocers and other dealers are so slow to see the advantage that is derived from cash purchases. One of our flour men is offering inducements equal to two per cent. per month, and on common brands it is equal to two and a half per cent. Can grocers and country dealers stand this heavy discount. No wonder Jenkins, of the Checkered Front, can furnish at such low prices. He is selling at manufacturer's prices, and is satisfied with small profits. It is yet a mystery how his celebrated White River, Crossett's and Ford's Flours can be sold at the prices he is selling at. See his advertisement on this page.

The Daily Commercial.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1869.

PRESIDENT GRANT has requested the Society of Friends to furnish him a list of persons they can recommend for Indian Agents. This is truly a novel beginning, and a revolution as complete as was ever seen in any department of the government. From the days of yore to the present time, Indian Agents have, as a general thing, been licensed thieves, and this class of public servants and the rings they represent, will no doubt be intensely disgusted with GRANT for consulting the Quakers. Truly, things are changing!

PRESIDENT GRANT has more than intimated that while the Civil Tenure act stands, he will vigorously enforce it, although such a course would materially retard the proposed and desired changes in the offices. Under the law, no officer can be removed for political reasons—only those who can be removed on charges of incompetency or unfaithfulness. It is possible, therefore, that the Senate will have to act first, and it may be well for the noble army of office seekers to turn their batteries in that direction.

MR. BOUTWELL has taken the oath of office and entered on his duties as Secretary of the Treasury. He goes into the position with the entire confidence of the country, and in financial circles especially his appointment is deservedly popular. It is believed that he will vigorously second the policy of the President of collecting every dollar without having a cent stolen, and managing every Department with rigid economy. With BOUTWELL as Treasurer and DELANO as Revenue Commissioner, the whisky rings may as well begin to scatter.

SOME of the sayings attributed to the President are to be received with several grains of caution, but the following is so characteristic that we accept it as genuine. Conversing with a gentleman concerning the character of those he desired to employ in the various departments, the President is reported to have said, "I shall not tolerate any idlers; the people are too poor to pay salaries as a mere bonus to professional politicians." It is sentences like these that lead the people to repose the utmost faith in the President's purposes. These pithy sayings cause extraordinary agitation among the barnacles, many of whom prefer to make a movement on their own behalf rather than run the risk of being bruised by the thorough scraping off process they foresee.

It is difficult to please everybody. Some people, however, are not quite so hard to please as others, as for instance, the ex-rebels of Louisiana. General SWAYNE's administration proved a sore trial to them. When Generals ROUSSEAU and SWAYNE were ordered to administer the affairs in that State, the ex-rebels of the unreconstructed sort were so jubilant that they resorted to their old pastime of shooting "niggers" to give vent to their joy. At the same time, it cannot be denied that the appointment of SWAYNE to the Department gave as much satisfaction to the loyal people as his removal causes regret. Now that General SWAYNE is to assume the command of the department again, there is a weight of despondency bearing down the rebel element scarcely paralleled by anything to be found in the rebel letter of the many discouraging disappointments recorded by NASBY. A dispatch to that eminently impartial sheet, the Louisville Courier-Journal, intimates that "the different Democratic clubs will use every exertion to avoid any collision with the negroes" who are preparing to receive SWAYNE in a formal manner. This is a wise conclusion. If they are only earnest in the matter, they will save themselves a vast amount of trouble. General SWAYNE will conduct things in a strictly business manner when he goes back to New Orleans. He is not the man to tolerate nonsense originating either with the negroes or whites.

THE FIRST SCENE AND THE EFFECT.

The Cabinet as it stands in its composition and selection fully realizes the original purpose of the President, and is warmly approved by the country. It was made up by himself, and will be wholly independent of the personal and sectional influences which was his aim to avoid, and which in the past have been the chief source of discords and of the abuses which the President is determined to uproot. The opening scene may be said to be finished; and though there was for a moment a hitch in the working of the machinery, it concludes with the applause of the tens of thousands who from first to last watched its progress with the greatest interest. With a Cabinet thus selected, and with each individual member in harmony with the President, the purity of source from which the administration will outflow in a thousand different directions secured against every contingency, it cannot well fail to be generally satisfactory in all its ramifications. With such a head, all the main lines emanating to, each as independence of the influences of cliques and rings which have kept up a perpetual war on almost every valuable interest, and plundered the National Treasury, will to the extent that is possible where so many and so widely extended agencies are employed, be realized. The example which President GRANT has thus far set the country will exert a great influence on all who have favors to ask, influence to wield, or power to use; more especially as he has caused it to be distinctly understood that he will not hesitate to review his own action and the action of subordinates whenever mistakes are found out. With such an example before them, and this caution proclaimed, we can safely assume that many things usual heretofore will be impracticable to undertake under this administration, and that at the very least there will be a general leveling up in the grade of men from which appointees to office will be selected, and a much more rigid accountability than there has for a long time been exacted. With this new leaf turned over and the knowledge of its contents perfectly well known to the whole country, we can readily believe that hundreds of applicants for office will at once retire to the rear and better men take their places. This general leveling up cannot fail of producing grand results for the country, and in the end of breaking to a good degree the sins of rings and cliques. In accomplishing this, and at a single stroke, few men besides GRANT would have been successful, and we see the importance of his having his own way in selecting his Cabinet.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

There is a bill now before the Legislature to prevent cruelty to animals, which it is not only desirable to have passed, but rigidly enforced. It is painfully apparent to every observant person, that there is no adequate means for protecting that useful animal, the horse, from the cruelties practiced by passionate and brutal men, by unnecessary beating and over-working. The cow, the ox, the calf, the hog, and other animals, are also subjected to frequent abuse, which are often as unnecessary as they are cruel. Those animals intended for slaughter are subjected to all manner of tortures, even to the deprivation of food and water. Aside from the pain inflicted upon the animals, it is held by the highest medical authority that the torture renders the flesh unwholesome for food, hence there is a double motive for preventing all cruelty in the shipping, transporting or slaughtering of animals or fowls intended for human consumption. So little attention, however, has been given to this subject, that there is great diversity of opinion as to what constitutes cruelty to the brute creation, and it would be perhaps impossible to frame such a law as would prevent every kind of cruelty. Only the most flagrant cases of abuse will be punished, but there may be found abundant of these to call for the constant application of the law, and by this means the public attention may be directed to the lesser abuses and cruelties practiced, and public sentiment educated up to the proper standard of reform. The man who beats his horse, mule, or ox, is ready to offer a dozen excuses by way of palliation, or he may assert that the beating is not cruel at all. In such cases the magistrate will have the power to decide. There is a species of cruelty, however, which is altogether wanton, and cannot be justified—that is, the fighting or baiting of animals for sport, or for money. This is made a misdemeanor under the new law, and all parties engaged therein, directly or indirectly, may be arrested and punished. The provisions of the bill are given in another column.

THE discovery of the law of 1789, which kept Mr. STEWART from serving as Secretary of the Treasury, has caused the suggestion to be made that it might be well to institute a search for others. We are all aware that a great many known laws are openly violated, but what unknown laws there are, to which we are going counter every day, nobody can be quite certain. The authorship of the law in question has been erroneously attributed to ALEXANDER HAMILTON. EDANUS BURKE, of South Carolina, introduced it in the House of Representatives, June 30, 1789, the bill for organizing the Treasury Department being under consideration. Mr. BURKE was born in Ireland, was appointed Judge of the Supreme Court of South Carolina in 1778, was a representative in Congress from that State 1789 to 1792.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

Mr. Jeremiah Hogan died in Philadelphia a few days since, aged one hundred and three years. His mental faculties were vigorous and unimpaired, and up to the time of the illness which prostrated him, only two weeks before his death, he could and did read newspaper print without the aid of spectacles.

Every year accumulates testimony in favor of the value of leached ashes as a fertilizing agent. At a recent meeting of the "Mohawk Farmers' Club, Mr. Lewis stated that as an experiment he marked off equal slips of his flat lands, applying different manures to each. Horse manure on one, cow manure on another, the sweeping of the barnyard on the third and leached ashes on the fourth. The last produced the most favorable results.

Yet another attempt is about to be made in New York to establish a comic paper. The capital is said to be $50,000, nearly all of which is said to be subscribed, and by parties who say more will be forthcoming if necessary, to place the enterprise on a firm basis. The most liberal contributor is said to be a gentleman connected with the Erie Railroad Directorship. The first number will appear about the first of June.

"A rumor is in circulation," says the Italie, of Florence, "that the contract for the sale of ecclesiastical property to put an end to the forced currency, has just been concluded with an important establishment in Paris. We have, however, reason to believe that the negotiations are not yet terminated."

At the last state ball at Vienna, the Empress of Austria appeared in a new dress composed of the green and golden wings of South American beetles, sewn with gold thread on a tissue of white silk. A splendid suite of diamonds and emeralds completed this costume.

Van Wyck, the famous New York surgeon, warns the public against the use of the velocipede. He says the severe jar of the small hard seat produces disease of the prostrate gland, and if young men wish to preserve their manhood they should cease the use of the velocipede.

Patti, who now sings for thousands of dollars a night, to say nothing of the rich presents received at the hands of royalty, commenced her public musical performance by singing in an old building in Jersey City, now used as a carpenter's shop.

General James T. Worthington, of Chillicothe, Ohio, has successfully cultivated figs in his garden for several years, and has published a pamphlet giving practical information of the mode of culture. Mr. Worthington says that wherever the tomato can be grown the fig will flourish and mature.

A steamboat which has been building at Des Moines, Iowa, this winter, by Henry Sullivan, will be launched as soon as the river opens, and will ply on the Des Moines between Des Moines and Keosauqua, affording connection with the Northwestern Railroad. She is a small craft, sternwheel, with 27 inches draft.

Rev. W. H. Milburn, the "blind preacher," has been once successfully operated upon for the restoration of his eye sight, in Germany, but the inflammation that followed made it necessary to postpone for some months the final operation, which will give him sight. Meanwhile he has returned from Berlin to Paris, and is in growth and lectures before the Americans who are there congregated.

Oregon tradesmen are said to be greatly agitated by the discovery that a detective has been making a tour of the State spying out the dealers who are selling goods unstamped, or insufficiently stamped. It is said that the fines of those already detected will amount to $20,000.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says that information has been received by the police force of that city, that several strangers known to have money in their possession, have mysteriously disappeared from the city lately, in such a manner as to justify the suspicion of foul play.

An exchange suggests that the several States adopt the custom of carrying out capital punishment employed in Europe, where one and of executing the sentence of the law is entrusted to a single individual. By pursuing this course we are told the business of hanging will be performed in a practical manner, and there will be an end of the horrible botcheries reported throughout the country. The suggestion is timely. If we are to keep up the practice of choking healthy men, and sound converts to Christianity, let us do it in a systematic manner. We think it would not be a bad plan to set apart a portion of the public funds for the express purpose of establishing a State College to be devoted exclusively to the business of perfecting pupils in the art of hanging. By and by it may be accomplished one of the fine arts. The pupils need not lack for subjects; there is always heaven might profitably be devoted to the practice of choking the men which infest our streets.

THE many admirers of that fearless champion of human rights, Wendell Phillips, will regret to learn that his faculties are seriously impaired. We are not informed as to the cause or nature of the complaint, but judging from the following extract, from a recent article in the Anti-Slavery Standard, we are led to believe that the superinducing cause is softening of the heart.

[illegible]

As Wendell was never known to "wail" on anything or any one, but on the contrary always made a suppositious case, or jumped to a conclusion which enabled him to display his rare skill at analysis, we can only "judge" his present lamentable condition "by his actions." When Phillips can't grumble, he is in a desperate condition.

A MASSACHUSETTS Legislative Committee on so much of the Governor's Message as relates to the depression of commerce, have submitted their report. The minority report prepared by Mr. Nash, of Boston, is quite lengthy, and discusses several topics of interest to the mercantile public, and, indeed, to all business men. It is argued that American commerce, which had been stimulated in its growth by the discovery of gold in California, had begun to decline two years before the rebellion, but that its present depression is now owing to heavy taxation and a false system of currency.

MR. BERGH will injure his reputation for sound judgment if he persists in defending the rights of the pack of curs to be found in every village in the country. Without stopping to debate the question, it is sufficient to know that people have died from the effects of the bite of a mad dog, and that one human life is worth all the dogs in the world even when rated at the highest market price. All unmuzzled dogs found at large "out of season" should be slaughtered. They serve no useful purpose in a city, but are in fact an intolerable nuisance.

IT seems that the Ku Klux of Rome, Arkansas, are not thoroughly reconstructed yet. Hon. Henry A. Millen, ex-Senator of Arkansas, was shot and severely wounded by an assassin on the 8th ult. Mr. Millen was following his wife's remains to a steamboat at the time he was shot. The assassin seized Millen's cat, and retains it as a trophy. It is barely possible that the ex-rebels at Rome have not heard the news of Grant's election.

THE success of the Havana journals in publishing economic statements concerning the exploits of the Spanish troops there, and quite come up to the requirements of the times, they will receive the material from which Spanish history is to be made directly from headquarters of the army invasion. We may prepare for some startling news.

DR. EDDY, of Chicago, has declined the chaplaincy of the House of Representatives. He will shortly remove to Baltimore to take charge of the Charles Street Methodist Episcopal Church.

Chicago Improvements.

Chicago does nothing by halves—not even "high crimes and misdemeanors." She has already a debt of $7,1,000. In addition, the municipal authorities have applied to and obtained from the Legislature authority to loan the city's credit for the following purposes:

For the Canal	$1,000,000
For the Water-works	1,000,000
For the Public Schools	750,000
For the Tunnel	250,000
For the Sewerage System	1,000,000
For the Court House	200,000
For the Bridewell	200,000
For the Polytechnic School	250,000
	$5,000,000
Add existing debt	7,100,000
Total	$12,100,000

Sugar Speculations.

The Boston Traveller says the speculation in sugars is likely to have a short run and react upon the speculators. There are many reasons for assuming this. The revolution in Cuba is of that nature which will hardly admit of the insurgents, which are the largest property holders, destroying their plantations. There desire is precisely the opposite. And then, in the expectancy of a lengthy war, large orders for sugar have been sent to Manilla, Java, Sumatra, and other places in the East. These supplies are regarded as the best for refining, and until within twenty or twenty-five years were principally used by our refiners. Ten or twelve thousand tons of these sugars arriving about the same time would have a decided effect on our market. Again, this is the time for setting cane, and advices from Louisiana show that an unusual "plant" will be made this spring. With trade labor and Northern energy, another five years will make us comparatively independent of foreign supplies.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

A General Law on the Subject.

There is now before the Legislature a general law which provides that any person who shall wantonly or cruelly ill-treat, beat or abuse any animal, belonging to himself or another; or who shall keep or use, or in any way be connected with any place used for the purpose of fighting or baiting any bull, bear, dog, cock or other creature, or encourage, aid or assist therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction before any magistrate shall be fined by the alderman or magistrate for the first offense in a sum not less than five dollars nor more than ten dollars, and for the second and every subsequent offense in a sum not less than ten nor exceeding twenty dollars, to be paid one-half to the informer (who shall be a competent witness notwithstanding such interest), and the other half to the Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals; and if said fine be not paid, then said magistrate shall commit said offender to the county prison there to remain until discharged by due course of law.

An appeal may be taken, and the case held for trial in the Quarter Sessions, where, upon conviction, the party shall pay a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or undergo an imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

If any person shall be arrested for carrying, or causing or allowing to be carried, in or upon any cart or vehicle whatsoever, any creature, in a cruel or inhuman manner, the person taking him into custody may take charge of such vehicle and its contents, and deposit the same in some safe place of custody, and any necessary expenses which may be incurred for taking charge of and keeping the same, and sustaining any animal attached thereto, shall be a lien thereon, to be paid before the same can lawfully be recovered, or the said expenses may be recovered by the person incurring the same, of the owner of said creature in any action therefor.

If any maimed, sick, infirm, or disabled creature, shall, by any person, be abandoned to die, in any public place, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and it shall be lawful for any alderman or magistrate of said city to appoint suitable persons to destroy and remove such creature, if unfit for further use, at the cost of the owner thereof, recoverable before the said alderman.

Any policeman or constable, or any agent of the Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, who shall have been designated as such, may, upon his own view of any such misdemeanor, or upon the complaint of any other person, who may declare his or her name and abode to such policeman, constable, or agent, make arrests and bring before any alderman or magistrate offenders found violating the provisions of this act.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

To Buyers of Watches Everywhere.

The greater part of the jewellers of the United States keep Waltham Watches, and cordially recommend them to their customers, notwithstanding the fact that less profit is made on these watches than on any others generally sold by the trade. The reason of this is, that the reputation of the Waltham Watch renders it an easy sale, and the result is, that, although the dealer does not make as much money on each individual watch as he may on the sale of other watches, he is still the gainer through larger and livelier sales. There are some, however, among the trade, who do not give the Waltham Watch that hearty support which it deserves. This portion of the trade fancy there is more money to be made by dealing in watches about which the public are ignorant, and in which there is less competition, and are content to make an occasional sale of such watches at a large profit. It is this class of dealers who, when asked about Waltham Watches, use that kind of language which leads the customer finally to buy just such a watch as is the most profitable for the dealer to sell. For the information of persons about to buy a watch, and who may be unfavorably affected by the representations of those unfriendly to our watches, we call attention to the following suggestions:

Since the manufacture of watches was initiated at Waltham, the Company have made and sold about 400,000 watches. In every town and village of the country some wearer of a Waltham Watch may be found. Let the party about to buy ask this owner of an American Watch this question:

Has Your Watch Given You Satisfaction

We are not afraid to advise those wishing to buy a watch to guide themselves by the answer. Being satisfied as to the quality of the watch, the buyer has now only to satisfy himself that the Waltham Watches are THE CHEAPEST as well as the best. On this head we have a few words to say:

It is a well known fact in manufacturing, that the greater the number of articles manufactured by one establishment, the smaller will be the cost of each individual article. Keeping this in view, our policy has always been to sell our products at the lowest possible price in order to secure large sales, and thus enable us to manufacture watches at a minimum cost. WE BELIEVE IN SMALL PROFITS AND A LARGE BUSINESS. This policy we have successfully carried out, and the result is, that to-day we manufacture twice as many watches as all the other factories in the United States put together.

We can, therefore, afford to sell Cheaper than they do, and actually do sell Twenty-five per cent. Cheaper than they do, quality for quality.

We would further remark that in increasing our product we have constantly improved its QUALITY AND ITS VARIETY. We have had the refusal of nearly all inventions intended to improve time-pieces, and have adopted all those, and those only, which have proved to be really valuable. We have retained in our employment every head of a department we have ever had, whose services were of any importance to the Company, and our present corps of designers and master mechanics cannot be equaled in this or any other country. In addition to this we make gold and silver cases, not only for our own movements, but for those of other factories, ours being the only establishment that turns out watches complete in every respect.

As these Watches are for sale by the Trade generally throughout the United States, and at a retail profit most reasonable by competition, the Company invariably decline orders of a retail character.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY EVENING, March 12, 1869.

Money was in better supply to-day, and borrowers were accommodated more liberally. Some of the discount houses report deposits light and checking heavy, and are refusing to purchase paper except from their regular customers.

—The advance on bonds to-day was most marked in 62's, which show a rise over yesterday's quotations of one per cent., and have touched the highest point ever made. Jay Cooke & Co., in their letter to Messrs. McVay & Co., notice the New York bond market of yesterday as follows:

"The market closed very heavy last night from the decline of bonds in London. This morning the quotations came better and our market at once sympathized with the advance. [illegible] At noon it was shown the Bank of England had not, as anticipated, raised the rate, and this gave more confidence to buyers. [illegible]

"Money was more active, and the indications are that the banks will be compelled soon to call in their loans to straighten themselves, as the currency shipments every day are making them poor. Besides the Assistant Treasurer's balance is reduced to [illegible] and the new Secretary will be obliged to sell gold or do something to increase his balance. This will also have the effect of making money more stringent."

Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co. report the following quotations of government bonds in New York [illegible]

MONONGAHELA MARKS—Twelve feet six inches and falling.

THE marks last evening indicated twelve feet six inches and falling. The weather during the day was cold. Business on the landing was brisk and shipments very heavy. The river at one time appeared full of towboats.

The First March Run of Coal.

The present rise in the Monongahela river has produced the usual activity among coal dealers, making preparations for a big run—one of the largest for some time, amounting in the aggregate to 2,995,000 bushels coal and 18,000 bushels coke. Grand total, 3,013,000 bushels. Towed out by 30 towboats in 209 boats, barges and flats. A portion of the fleet have left; the balance will leave as soon as they can get ready.

THE Maggie Hays left yesterday for St. Louis with an excellent trip.

THE Mollie Ebert is going to load from this place for Fort Benton.

CAPTAIN JOHN WOODBURN is in Cincinnati looking after the Fort Gibson.

THE Glasgow packet, Captain Robinson, leaves for St. Paul on Wednesday positively.

THE new low-pressure Carrie V. Kountz, Captain I. C. Vanhook, leaves for Fort Benton on Saturday.

THE Northern Line packet Savannah, Capt. Isherwood, is receiving for St. Louis, Galena and Dubuque. She will have dispatch.

THE packet Sallie, Capt. Calhoun, was detained on account of the Allegheny ice. She will positively leave this day at 10 A. M. for St. Louis and Omaha direct.

THE Tom Farrow and barges, Capt. Charles Mathews, is announced for Evansville, Cairo and St. Louis, on Monday 15th. Shippers will bear this in mind.

THE mountain packet Silver Lake No. 4, Captain J. Todd, is announced for another trip to the mountains. Persons going that way will receive the best of attention on the boat.

THE fine sidewheel packet Grey Eagle, Captain C. L. Brennan, leaves this day at 12 M. for Wheeling, Marietta and Parkersburg. This boat is well found and is in charge of careful and attentive officers.

THE fine packet Sallie, Captain T. S. Calhoun, will positively leave for Omaha direct. She has already several lots of freight engaged. The Sallie was built expressly for the Missouri river, has superior accommodations, and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. The first clerk is Mr. John A. Q. Parr, a clever and gentlemanly officer.

THE well known Nashville and Clarksville packet Camelia, Captain Joseph Lytle, is announced for the above ports on Saturday. We are pleased to see our old friend Captain Lytle back again in this trade. He is beyond all question one of the most gentlemanly and attentive officers that comes to this port.

THE fine steamer Messenger, Capt. Jesse Dean, is announced for St. Louis and Missouri river. The Messenger is an A No. 1 boat in every respect. The officers are well and favorably known. Capt. Dean understands his duty in all its various departments. The first clerk is Capt. James Russell, who does things on the square. In charge of the present officers the Messenger cannot fail to be a popular institution.

COLONEL is the name selected for Capt. M. A. Cox's new mountain packet. This boat was built under the superintendence of Captains Jacobs and Cox, especially for the Missouri river trade. In her construction no expense has been spared. Her hull is a model of timber and fastenings. Missouri river boatmen have pronounced her admirably adapted for that trade; and in charge of so competent an officer as Captain Cox, is certain to be a success. The Colonel will leave this port about the 20th of March. She will go direct through. We take pleasure in recommending boat and officers.

THE Portsmouth packet Kenton, Capt. W. H. Kerr, takes her departure to-day at 10 A. M. for Wheeling, Marietta, Parkersburg and Portsmouth. This boat is a great favorite with passengers, and deservedly so. In her up trip she registered over 100 cabin passengers. This shows the estimation she is held in by travelers—we have never heard a word of complaint. Everybody has a kind word for boat and officers. This is not to be wondered at when we take into consideration that the commander is ably assisted by the first clerk, Mr. W. J. C. Anderson, one of the most correct, attentive and obliging officers that comes to this port, who conducts the business of the office with profit to the owners and credit to himself. The officers of the Kenton have made her a success.

THE new low pressure steamer Carrie V. Kountz, built under the superintendence of Commodore W. J. Kountz, especially for the Mountain trade, will be commanded by Captain I. C. Vanhook, an officer who stands at the head of his profession. She is announced for Fort Benton direct on Saturday. This boat is destined to create a sensation and probably to work a revolution in steamboating on the Missouri river. In her construction no expense was spared. The hull has bulkhead after the manner of ocean steamers, and it would seem almost impossible to sink a boat built on this plan. On her trial trip the other day the low pressure engines gave entire satisfaction. The pilots say she handles like a sidewheel boat. In a word, the Carrie V. Kountz will no doubt prove a great success and reflect great credit on the Commodore, who designed and superintended her construction.

OUR CHURCHES.

Denominational and Personal.

The First Baptist Church, Allegheny, received by baptism eight persons to membership last Sabbath evening.

The Third Presbyterian Church of this city has adopted the system of a rotary eldership, electing three elders every year for a term of three years. The deacons, six in number, are put under the same rule. The church has also elected six deaconesses.

Last fall a church, to be known as the Fifth Methodist Church of Pittsburgh, was organized in that part of the city called Soho. A Sabbath School was organized, superintended by Thomas F. Scott, Esq., a great worker among and for children. Both organizations are proving great successes. Evening meetings are now being held, and on last Thursday evening twelve adult persons consecrated themselves to the Lord. Rev. E. M. McGregor is pastor.

Novelties in religion have not yet ceased. Rev. Mr. Ralsh, of Chicago, (we know not of what stripe in religion) at an opening service recently, said—"Let us commune with one another, and our own better selves," and then added—"with eyes closed to things of outward sense, we would open up the windows of our souls and let in the azure of resplendent skies, the glorious tints of dawn and sunset, all [illegible] is true, and beautiful, and good in morals and high philosophy. [illegible] that we [illegible] all be actuated by sincere love of truth, with firm purpose and high resolve to advance the cause of our common humanity. Let us be more manly, more womanly, more forgiving, the one towards the other. Let brotherly love continue. Amen." Who did this man pray to?

The Presbytery of San Jose, Cal., has taken action positively prohibiting Mr. Hamilton, of Oakland, from preaching the doctrine "that probation does not end with the present life, and that the punishment of the wicked will not be eternal." On appeal, the synod, with a single dissenting vote, sustained this action. The parish, it is said, sustained their eloquent pastor.

The old School Presbyterian Church at Industry, Presbytery of Allegheny, Rev. M. L. Wortman, pastor, is enjoying a special work of grace. Seventeen have already been added to the Church, on the profession of faith, and the interest still continues.

Dr. C. A. Holmes, late of the Iowa Wesleyan University and formerly of this city, has returned to it, and is likely to become the pastor of some one of the churches of his denomination here, or hereabouts, again. He will be cordially welcomed by his old friends, and new ones.

Rev. E. B. Snyder, pastor of the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Allegheny, has received an invitation to serve the Trinity M. E. Church, Chicago, as its pastor. The arrangement, if receiving the Episcopal sanction, is likely to be consummated. Mr. S. has enjoyed a successful pastorate where he now is, and his removal will be regretted.

Henry Ward Beecher is said to have received last year, for preaching, $12,000, and for writing for the press and from his books, the further sum of $28,000. Well, he deserves his prosperity, for no man has done more to help mould this nation after the pattern of justice and freedom. [illegible]

Bishop Kingsley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is said to be preparing for an absence of nearly fifteen months, on a visit to China, India, Germany, etc., among the mission fields of that denomination. His residence is Cleveland, Ohio.

It is asserted by one of the papers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that, at the recent session of the Memphis Conference of that Church, twenty-two ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church united with the Church South, with [illegible] members.

The forthcoming council of the Romish church, to meet next fall, is expected to continue in session some six months. This is because of the vast interests of that church now pending. Subscriptions are being taken up in England towards its expenses.

The Independent gives, as the summing up of the revival intelligence for last week, an aggregate of over 11,000 reported accessions and conversions; and of these 3,000 are among the Methodists, 1,250 among the Baptists, 270 among the United Brethren, 121 among the Congregationalists, 162 among the Presbyterians, and 27 among the Free-will Baptists.

The Lutheran Church in this country claims 1,000,000 members—being the third largest denomination among us. In all the world, it is said to exceed in number any other branch of the Protestant church. Truly, the great Reformer made his mark.

One of the longest pastorates is that of the Rev. Joseph McElroy, D. D., who was settled in the Scotch Presbyterian church, New York, in 1822. He preached an able and impressive discourse on the 21st of December last, on the occasion of the forty-fifth anniversary of his pastoral charge of that church.

According to the Religious Telescope, the United Brethren have increased, during the past year, 10,000, although no less than 12,000 members are annually lost to the denomination by being "dropped" or by moving away.

The publishing interest of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the West, are to be placed in the hands of a Joint Stock Company, to be called the Southwestern Book and Publishing Company. For this purpose $75,000 have been already raised.

The Jewish Messenger is greatly scandalized that a woman in Chicago should have publicly abjured Roman Catholicism, to espouse Judaism and a Hebrew husband. It denounces all proselytism on either side.

An important Methodist Episcopal Convention was held February 16th, in Syracuse, New York, in support of lay representation.

According to their Register for 1869, Universalists have in the United States about 797 parishes and 597 ministers. Of these, 47 ministers are in Maine, 18 in New Hampshire, 47 in Vermont, 155 in Massachusetts, 122 in New York, 39 in Pennsylvania, 47 in Ohio, 22 in Michigan, 29 in Indiana, 42 in Illinois, 21 in Wisconsin, 2 in Iowa.

Two editions of the Arabic Bible are now electrotyping in Beirut, Syria. Dr. Van Dyck, a missionary of American Board, does the entire revising of the Old Testament with his own hand.

In the Friendly Islands, where fifty years ago there was not one native Christian, but gross and unbroken darkness, the regular attendants on public worship now exceed 25,000, and contributions to religious objects are over $15,000 a year. Two hundred and fifty day schools contain 10,000 pupils.

The Free Church of Scotland has 750 girls in its nine schools in Madras, and 800 in Bengal. In Bombay there were 420 girls last year in their schools. The reports for this year have not been received.

The Methodist Episcopals have resolved to raise half a million dollars for new churches and chapels in destitute parts of New York city. One hundred thousand dollars of it is already subscribed.

Rev. Crammond Kennedy, who was put out of a Baptist church, in New York city, for holding open communion views, has taken the editorial charge of the Church Union, a paper devoted, as its name implies, to the promotion of greater union among the several denominations of Christians.

Romanists even differ one from another. In the Romish Church, which boasts of its unity, par excellence, this is true. For instance, Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati, tells us he believes in free schools, and that religious liberty is dear to his church—and much more of the same sort. But the Cardinal Archbishop of Valladolid, Spain, thinks and says differently. He denounces the effort to introduce Protestantism and Protestant literature into that country, as pernicious, false and infamous.

The Baptists have a social union association in Boston, the object of which is to meet once a month, and dine and spend the evening together, to form each other's acquaintance, and confer in relation to the wants of the church.

Recently, Rev. Thos. S. Dunn, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in San Jose, California, was notified that any further attention to the Chinese on his part would be visited with mischief to the church. He paid no attention to the threat, but continued to invite them to the church. A few days after the church was set on fire and totally consumed. It cost $20,000 in gold.

The Ecumenical Council will meet in the right transept of St. Peter's, which will accommodate over 2,000 people. Subscriptions are to be called for to pay the expense of $20,000 in providing stalls for the accommodation of the prelates, as well as the other enormous expenses.

A Jewish alliance in France has nearly 21,000 members. It is looking forward to the occupancy of Palestine by the Jews. They have an agricultural school and colony near Jaffa. The eighth anniversary was held January 15th, in Paris, and was a brilliant gathering.

Rev. Mr. Fulton, a Baptist minister of Boston, in giving notice of the inauguration prayer meeting at the Meionaon, twelve o'clock Thursday, said: "Now that the nation is to have the extreme privilege of hearing the 'curse removed' which has so long afflicted us, it becomes us to pray that the boon granted us by the people may, under the guidance of God, prove to be a Grant from heaven."

The Methodist Episcopal book concern is a mighty establishment. Its assets amount in real estate $[illegible], merchandise $[illegible], cash $[illegible], notes and accounts $[illegible]. This leaves a total, after deducting liabilities to the amount of $[illegible], of $[illegible]. The earnings last year were $[illegible]. The book agents are Drs. Carlton and Lanahan at New York, and Drs. Hitchcock and Walden in Cincinnati.

According to Schem's Ecclesiastical Almanac, there are in the United States 10 Methodist bodies, with [illegible] traveling ministers and [illegible] members. There are 10 Presbyterian bodies, with 7,[illegible] ministers and [illegible] members. The several Baptist denominations have [illegible] ministers and [illegible] members. The Congregationalists have [illegible] ministers and [illegible] members; Episcopalians, [illegible] ministers and [illegible] communicants; Lutherans, [illegible] ministers and [illegible] communicants; German Reformed, [illegible] ministers and [illegible] members; the United Brethren, [illegible] traveling preachers and [illegible] members. The Reformed Protestants have [illegible] preachers; the Moravians, [illegible]; Universalists, [illegible]; Unitarians, [illegible]; Swedenborgians, [illegible].

The first Presbyterian church of Chicago has a membership of 1,100 in its home school, 1,200 in the North Star Mission, including a large German school; and five other missions, with an attendance varying from [illegible] to [illegible], making a total of [illegible] members and an average attendance of [illegible]. During the [illegible] the attendance of [illegible] the year [illegible] converted [illegible] in these schools.

Rev. A. [illegible] Burns, chaplain of the Ohio penitentiary, says that of [illegible] convicts received [illegible] in 1868, five attended Sunday school regularly till eighteen years old, [illegible] attended irregularly, and [illegible] never attended at all.

Arrested at Last.—Chief of Police Bowden of Allegheny, Thursday arrested a man in a saloon in the Fifth ward, named James Rodgers. It appears that Rodgers, about two weeks ago was charged with stealing a watch and some clothes from a gentleman in Erie, and a deputy [illegible]. He was placed in the Allegheny lock-up and will be taken to Erie to-day. On his way to the lockup he made a determined effort to escape, but was recaptured.

East Birmingham Councils—Special Meeting.

A special meeting of East Birmingham Councils was held in Justice Ammon's office, on Friday evening, March 12th, 1869.

Members present—Messrs. Dowson, Barr, Fold, Ford and Burgess Stocum, who occupied the chair.

On motion the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting was dispensed with.

The ordinance regulating the running of Mr. Keeling's coal cars on Railroad street, submitted at the last meeting of the Council, was adopted. The provisions of the ordinance have been published.

The Clerk read an ordinance changing the names of the streets, running north and south from Carson street to the river, commencing with Harmony street as Seventeenth street, and running in regular rotation to McClurg, which will be Twenty-seventh street.

Mr. Fold moved the ordinance be adopted. Pending the adoption of the ordinance Mr. Dowson moved to incorporate the following clause in the same: "That Carson street between Harmony and McClurg street in said borough be hereafter known as Ormsby avenue." Agreed to, and the ordinance adopted as amended.

Birmingham and South Pittsburgh, it is said, will also change the street in the same manner.

The matter of the paving of Railroad street was referred to the Street Committee, with instructions to meet to-day, in conjunction with Mr. Keeling and devise a plan for the repaving of said street.

The Clerk read a communication from A. Patterson, Esq., proposing to furnish the numbers for the houses in the borough, but as there has been no ordinance passed providing for the same, no consideration was given the proposition. It was accepted and filed.

On motion adjourned until Tuesday evening, to hear the report of the Street Committee in reference to Railroad street.

Fatal Accident on the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

On Friday of last week a fatal accident occurred at Foster Station, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, the victim being a laborer named Karnes. It appears that the switching engine was making what is called a running switch, that is, the train gets up a good rate of speed, when the engine is cut loose, and passes over the switch on the main track; the switch is then changed and the cars pass in on the side track. At the time of the accident, Karnes was standing on the main track and seeing the engine coming towards him he stepped off on the side track to get, as he supposed, out of danger. As the engine passed him the engineer called to him and motioned towards the train that was fast nearing him, but as it was snowing and blowing fearfully at the time, he did not hear or at least did not understand the warning, when the train struck him, fearfully mangling and killing him instantly.

Alleged Extortion.

David Scott, a stranger in the city, arrived at the Union Depot yesterday, and unfortunately for him he inquired of a hack driver the way to Fifth avenue. The driver proffered to take him there in a carriage for a trifling sum, and Scott was accordingly conveyed to Fifth avenue. The driver, whose name was William Archibald, then announced that his charges were three dollars, which somewhat surprised the stranger. He paid it, however, and immediately went before Mayor Brush and preferred an information for extortion against Archibald, who was arrested and after a hearing fined five dollars and costs.

The Monongahela Valley Railroad.—Mr. Sigismund Loew, Chief Engineer of the Monongahela Valley Railroad, with a corps of surveyors, has been at work for some days past, and already about three miles and a half of the road has been surveyed. The point at which the survey commenced is at the Pan Handle Railroad bridge, South Pittsburgh, and thence along Manor street, to Birmingham and through that borough on the same street, and thence along Josephine street, East Birmingham, to a point near Mundorf's boat yard where it runs into Mary street. The route then proceeds along Mary street, through Ormsby borough, and along the hillside to Beck's run, and this is one of the proposed routes through the boroughs. Another will go down the river bank, but no survey has yet been made.

Alleged Larceny of Meat.—Michael Driscoll was brought to the lock-up last night on a charge of taking a few pounds of meat from the shop of Theodore Weiss, corner Sixteenth and Penn streets, Tenth ward. It appears he went into the shop and asked to see some meat, and while Mr. W. had his back turned slipped a piece of meat which was on the counter under his coat. The butcher on turning around missed it, and at once accused his customer of having taken it. He denied the accusation, but W. went to take it from him, when he showed fight. Just then an officer passed and the accused was placed in his custody and conveyed to the lock-up. He will have a hearing this morning.

Not a Candidate.—Owing to the fact that there is some suits pending in Court, in which the borough of East Birmingham are plaintiffs, and parties owning property on the river bank in said borough defendants, in some of which Mr. David Chess, whom the Republicans took up for Burgess, is interested, that gentleman has declined to be a candidate for said office, believing that in accepting the office he could not conscientiously defend himself in the dispute of the aforesaid property, which at the proper time he intends to do. August Ammon, Esq., Justice of the Peace of the borough, has consented to be a candidate, and it is probable he will receive a unanimous nomination this evening.

Meeting of the Railroad Committee.—The Committee of Councils on Railroads held a meeting in the Mayor's private parlor last evening, for the purpose of considering the petition of citizens residing on Pike street, complaining of the alleged nuisance maintained by the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company in the drilling and shifting of cars on said street. The Committee finally determined that the ordinances of the city provided sufficient redress for such grievances, and decided to so report to Councils, and that those aggrieved can institute such proceedings as they may deem necessary. The Committee would afford them no relief.

Committed to Jail for Forgery.—David Love, of Natrona, has been committed to jail on a charge of forgery preferred before Justice Mellon. The information is made by the mother of the prisoner, who alleges that during her sickness he forged her name to a check on the Allegheny Savings bank, and drew out of that institution $[illegible], and used it for his own benefit.

Painful Accident.—On Wednesday, John Borgmaster, an employee at Coleman and Rahm's mill, was passing under one of the hanging rails from which are suspended the tongs used in carrying the blooms, when the pulley to which a pair of tongs was attached, fell from the rail and struck him inflicting painful though not dangerous injuries about the back and head.

An Extortioner Punished.—Market Constable John Wrigley yesterday arrested Edward Logue, a huckster, for forestalling the market. The officer stated that the accused had purchased a coop of chickens during market hours for the purpose of selling the chickens again. Mayor Brush imposed a fine of five dollars and costs on the defendant, but he refused to pay it. An execution was issued against his property, and the amount was soon forthcoming.

A Diminutive Man.

A Harrisburg paper says: "Yesterday afternoon a diminutive specimen of humanity, claimed to be the smallest man in the world, created quite a sensation on the streets. He was engaged in selling photographs of himself, which found ready sale. His name is Charles H. Decker. He was born at Pontotoc, Miss., April 22d, 1848, is only thirty-one inches high, and weighs just forty-five pounds. He carried a gold-headed cane, smoked a cigar and topped off a cocktail with the greatest sang froid. Was dressed in tasty attire, and altogether a "nobby" looking fellow. He took his departure in the fast line, west, over the Pennsylvania Railroad." The subject of the above article arrived in our city yesterday, and immediately proceeded to dispose of his photographs, meeting with surprising success in the sale of the same. He is undoubtedly the smallest man known to the public.

The Alleged Counterfeiting Case—Hearing Before United States Commissioner Gamble.

Solomon Lightcap, charged by a man in Allegheny city with passing a counterfeit United States Treasury note of the denomination of ten dollars, had a hearing before United States Commissioner Gamble yesterday. A large number of witnesses were present and testified as to the transaction, and it appeared that the note was not passed by defendant, but that he at one time had a similar one which he took to the Custom House and had punched, but never had this one, which he was charged with passing, in his possession. The evidence in his favor was very clear, and the case was dismissed.

City Mortality.—Dr. Snively, Physician to the Board of Health, reports the number of deaths for the week ending March 7th, as follows: Males, 17; females, 12—total, 29. Of this number, thirteen were children and sixteen adults. Ten of the children were under one year old. The diseases were—Old age, apoplexy, paralysis, anemia, marasmus, dysentery, pertussis, bronchitis, cirrhosis, ascites, croup, cerebro-spinal congestion, eclampsia, gastro-enteritis, cerebral congestion, congestion of bowels, and spina bifida, one each; pneumonia, four; consumption, two; still-born, four; unknown, one.

The Adams Valve.—The attention of our readers is directed to the card of Messrs. Phillips & [illegible], of 120 Water street, who advertise the Adams Valve, with an improvement made by the manufacturers. This valve has been before the public but a comparatively brief time, but its manifest superiority over all other valves has caused an increasing demand for it. For steam, oil or water it is equally serviceable, and is furnished at a much less cost than ordinary valves. It is made of all sizes from one-quarter to six inches, in either brass or iron. Those in want of a serviceable, first-class valve should call on or address Messrs. Phillips & [illegible], 120 Water street.

The Mexican Soldiers' Monument.—The Columbia Fire Company, of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, have accepted an invitation from the Commissioners of the Mexican Soldiers' Monument to be present and participate in the dedicatory ceremonies which will take place on the 25th of May next. The monument, as before stated, stands on the Capitol grounds at Harrisburg, and the attendance on the occasion will doubtless be quite large. Various lodges in the East have signified their intention of being present, and nearly every city east of the mountains will be represented.

French Costume Shirts.—We have already referred our gentlemen readers to the new and stylish French Costume shirts, recently imported by Messrs. Fulmam & House, 72 Fifth avenue. These goods are of strong texture and most elegant manufacture, being in many respects equal to the best linen. They are made in the most fashionable styles and finished very neatly. Messrs. Fulmam & House have just received another invoice of the goods, and have now a full line of them, which are well worth the attention of all who wish to have the most fashionable as well as most serviceable goods.

Cheap Music.—Hitchcock's Half Dime series of music for the million is attaining a popularity superior in its character to that of half-dime novels. Thirty-four pieces have already been published, and all are popular airs. Pittock has the entire series for sale.

Personal.—Frank P. Blair arrived in the city yesterday morning, by the Pennsylvania Railroad, en route to his home in the West. He stopped a short time at the Union Depot Hotel, and then took the Western train. He received no hourly congratulations, as nobody knew of his presence in the city.

Religious Notice.—Rev. Dr. Hodge of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny City, will preach in the Pueblo District School House, Hazelwood, Twenty-third ward, to-morrow evening. Subject, "Regeneration and its relation to faith and a new life."

East Birmingham Republicans.—A meeting of the Republican voters of East Birmingham borough will be held this evening, to place in nomination candidates for Burgess, Council, &c. The selections will be made from the names suggested at a meeting held last Saturday evening.

New Sewing Machine.—A new sewing machine was placed in the Pittsburgh Gymnasium yesterday. It is a fair piece of workmanship.

Police Intelligence.

SATURDAY, March 13, 1869.

[Before Mayor Brush.]

VIOLATION OF AN ORDINANCE.

M. J. Fennell, keeper of a store on Penn street, was before the Mayor yesterday, charged by officer McMullen with violating an ordinance by throwing quantities of rubbish on the street. A slight fine was imposed, and he was warned not to repeat the offense.

AN ALLEGED FEROCIOUS DOG.

John Moran, living on Twentieth street, Twelfth ward, appeared before the Mayor yesterday and charged Daniel Dillon with keeping a ferocious dog. The dog in question was charged with having bitten Mrs. Moran. Information was made and a warrant issued.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

ALLEGED ABANDONMENT.

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of S. [illegible], charged on oath of his wife, Elizabeth, with abandonment and surety of the peace. She alleges that he has refused for some time past to contribute to her support, and further has threatened her seriously on divers occasions.

Public Amusements.

Opera House.—Mr. Proctor will appear at the matinee this afternoon as "Ethelwold," in the play of "Ambition." In the evening he will give his great personation of "The Jibbenainosay," and he will also appear as "Earl Desmond," in the "Champion of Erin."

Pittsburgh Theatre.—This favorite place of amusement will reopen this afternoon, with a new and talented company, prominent among which are the Lochwood sisters, Tim. Hayes and the Misses Wray. A varied and attractive performance is promised.

Academy of Music.—The distinguished German tragedienne, Fanny Janauschek, was greeted by another large and fashionable audience last evening, when she performed in "Deborah," in the play of that title. To-night she will make her farewell appearance, when, by special request, will be performed "Marianna, a Woman of the People," in which Miss J. will sustain the title role. Her season here, though brief, has been a successful one.

American Theatre.—This evening will be the last appearance of the intrepid gymnasts, the Vickerelli Brothers. The comic vocalists, comedians and handsome ballet corps at this establishment comprise a strong attraction, and large audiences are in attendance nightly.

The Museum.—Major Burnell has secured a five years' lease of the Museum building, and has gone East for novelties in the way of curiosities. He has some in view that will excite great astonishment in the minds of the patrons of the Museum, of the arrival of which due notice will be given.

A Malarious Month.

March, that gives us a new President, is also the inaugural month of many harrassing disorders. Entangled in its fogs are the seeds of coughs, colds, and of that alternation of frigidity and fire, more widely known than admired, called fever and ague. The only way to avoid these "little unpleasantnesses," is to render the system strong enough to fight off the atmospheric poison that produces them, and the best way to endow it with this repellent power is to tone it with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

If a wayfarer were credibly informed that a ruffian was waiting at the next corner, he would doubtless turn in his tracks and take a safer route to his destination. With just about the same amount of trouble the attacks of disease prevalent at this season may be evaded. Nay, the trouble will be less, for drug stores lie in every one's route, and every respectable druggist in the Union keeps on hand HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. The article is a staple of trade, and it would be as easy to find a grocery without sugar, as the store of an apothecary without this popular tonic remedy.

In view of the experience of the nation with regard to the article, during the space of twenty years, it seems almost unnecessary to recapitulate its merits to Americans. But as our population is increasing at the rate of a couple of millions a year, in the natural way and by immigration, it may be as well to hint to the rising generation and new arrivals (the old settlers know all about it), that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is the most wholesome and potent vegetable tonic ever manufactured; that it is a specific for debility, dyspepsia, biliousness and miasmatic fevers; that it prevents, as well as cures, these complaints and their complications; that it is not "bad to take," and is absolutely harmless.

THE INMAN LINE.

Liverpool, New York and Philadelphia Steamship Company.

The ardent spirit that is at present displayed for the establishment of an American line of steamships, to participate in our prodigious trade with Europe, and yet the little disposition that prevails for the personal investment of capital in such an enterprise, unless Congress can be induced to sanction the issue of bonds for the construction of a fleet, leads us, says Boyd's Shipping Gazette and Traveler's Guide of New York, to review the motives that suggested the commencement of some of those European lines, which, by skillful management and the increasing commerce between the two great quarters of the globe, have reached such a marvelous magnitude.

We shall now refer to the Inman Line, which under the style of the "Liverpool, New York and Philadelphia Steamship Company," was established in the year 1850. The line was originated by a British-American house doing business in Liverpool and Philadelphia, of which Mr. William Inman was a partner, and the route was originally from Philadelphia to Liverpool. The object was to construct iron screw steamships of such a character to supplant the wooden packet ships which at that time were the monarchs of the Atlantic. No Government aid was solicited, nor was Congress asked for the privilege of the mails. Without any endowment of this description, it was believed by the profound and enterprising projectors, that a line of steamships would be profitable which rested its hopes of success in freight and passengers, and under this conviction two vessels were built, one of which, the City of Manchester, still forms a vessel of the fleet.

For ten successive years the company prospered without recourse to the carriage of the mails, at the end of which period it conveyed the United States mails for the Ocean postage, its sailing day being then changed from Thursday to Saturday. But it established a fact rather opposed to the sentiments of the embryo companies of the present day, that a fleet of steamships under vigorous management may depend on freight and passengers to be reproductive.

By the superior means of transit which the company possessed it has contributed greatly to the enrichment of the States, both in population and monetary wealth, for in the eighteen years in which it has been in operation, it has conveyed to this country [illegible] emigrants from other climates; also, allowing that each emigrant is furnished on an average with $80 in gold (a most moderate estimate), the sum thus imported would amount to $[illegible]. Besides this it is estimated by David A. Wells, Special Commissioner of the revenue, that the value of each immigrant to the United States is equal to $1,000. These immigrants number, perhaps, nearly a sixtieth part of the present population of the United States, and if the advantage which these industrial people and their aggregate wealth have conferred upon America could be ascertained, it would form a most interesting feature in the national history, and certainly a distinguishing episode in the statistics of the company.

In eighteen years the Inman [illegible] two vessels have increased to a fleet of sixteen, one of which, the City of Paris, is, for her size and power, the most rapid traveler upon the Atlantic. She is the longest steamship of the Inman line, being 371 feet in length, forty in breadth, and twenty-seven and a half in depth, but her supremacy will be of short duration, for the City of Brussels, now building in the Clyde by Messrs. Todd & M'Gregor, is 390 feet in length, and is designed to be a ship of much higher rate of speed. In the Inman line the longest ship has always been the most speedy, and it is thought that the twenty-seven feet of greater length afforded to the City of Brussels will place the City of Paris but second among the racers.

The following list comprise the vessels of the line:

	Tons.
CITY OF BRUSSELS, (Building)
CITY OF BROOKLYN, Capt. S. Brooks	2911
CITY OF PARIS, Capt. J. Kennedy	2550
CITY OF ANTWERP, Capt. J. Mirehouse	2391
CITY OF LONDON, Capt. S. Brooks	2560
CITY OF BOSTON, Capt. T. F. Haskell	2278
CITY OF BALTIMORE, Capt. R. Leitch	2367
CITY OF WASHINGTON, Capt. J. J. Halcrow	2380
CITY OF NEW YORK, Capt. H. Tibbitts	2884
CITY OF MANCHESTER	2109
CITY OF DUBLIN, Capt. J. Eynon	2090
CITY OF CORK, Capt. W. R. Phillips	1545
CITY OF LIMERICK, Capt. G. Lockhead	1549
ETNA, Capt. W. Bridgman	2215
KANGAROO, Capt. T. C. Jones	1874
CITY OF HALIFAX, Capt. W. Jamieson	[illegible]
CITY OF DURHAM, Capt. J. McCartney	1930
Total	32,7[illegible]

It will thus be seen that the company has sixteen vessels afloat and one building, the average tonnage of which is 2,047 tons; of these, fourteen steamships are engaged in the trade with the United States, having a gross tonnage of 32,750, each boat averaging nearly 2,300 tons. The vessels make about eight "trips" per annum, a "trip" being understood as a voyage from Liverpool to New York and return. But the ships are not all employed in New York trade, the exceptions being the City of Halifax and the City of Durham, whilst the City of Limerick and the City of Dublin will resume their monthly trips to Antwerp in April next, conveying thither the American mails. In the Crimean and in the Abyssinian campaigns of the British, several of the company's boats were employed for the transport of troops and stores for the respective armies. Every Saturday the company dispatches a vessel for Liverpool, calling at Queenstown; and a boat via Halifax and Queenstown every alternate Tuesday; and during the summer months an additional steamship leaves the harbor of New York every Wednesday, and Liverpool every Saturday.

The company has undergone a considerable change since its original constitution. Philadelphia has long since been abandoned as a port of destination. It was soon found that the port of the States was New York, and that all such projects that desired to rank with the successful undertakings must be consigned thither and still thence. It has proved that the company was as clear sighted in the change in its port of sailing as it was in the establishment of the line, for the greatest good fortune has attended it. It has agents in every city in the Union, as well as the principal cities in Great Britain and the continent of Europe, and every effort is made to sustain the reputation of the line by the continual construction of new ships, for we hope that the prestige, that has been earned by many years of toil, may never be forfeited, and that the skillfulness and energy that has placed it in a position of such eminence may still be its guiding feature.

Conveying passengers at the lowest remunerative fare, and supplying accommodations that cannot be exceeded, the company's vessels have become amongst the most popular that leave the harbor, and those who have once crossed the Atlantic in these superb vessels generally repeat their voyages in the company's ships. Wm. Bingham, Jr., is the agent for the Inman line of steamships in this city. Office, No. 70 Fifth avenue, second floor.

The Malaria of Spring.

Everybody should now be on their guard against the great danger of disease arising from malarious causes. Fever and ague prevails to an alarming extent every spring in nearly all parts of the country, and many persons are easily predisposed to it on account of some imprudence during the winter months. Indeed, very much of the sickness we notice in the spring of the year may be traced to causes which were engendered in the "cold term." But whether the cause lies hidden in the system or not, it is certain that disease will develope itself at the first opportunity, hence no one should hesitate for a moment to set about combatting and overthrowing it. To accomplish this purpose nothing is so useful and reliable as MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS. It is a positive antidote for any malarious or impoisoned atmosphere and a certain protection against every morbid influence which produces disease. We say in all candor to our readers that they should give heed to our advice on the subject.

CATARRH.

This is a chronic affection of the mucous membrane of the nostrils or the throat, originating in irritation or inflammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most common, most disgusting, and, finally, most destructive of diseases incident to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stages Catarrh often fails to attract the patient's attention, so insidious is its approach. This is an unfortunate circumstance, because the most favorable period for treatment is thus unimproved, and because of the peculiar disposition of this disease to extend upward to the frontal sinuses, backward through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ear, and down through the larynx, trachia, and bronchia to the air cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the affected part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape observation, unless it chance to be of a more than usually acrid character. As time goes on, this gives place to a fluid that is thicker, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be succeeded by thick flakes or scales.

In all the more advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friend and to the patient himself while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as some times happen, the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

Some cases early assume the character of Dry Catarrh. There is then a feeling of uneasiness, heat and stiffness in the nostrils, which are often (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent symptom.

On examining the nostrils in chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find its lining membrane thickened and of a deeper color than in health. There are seen little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and forms crusts. When these are picked off the diseased surface is irritated, and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the disease extends. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, obstructing of the lachrymal ducts, causing the tears to flow over the cheeks, and, possibly, opthalmia. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian tubes and consequent tendency to their obstruction, inflammation of the middle ear, buzzing sounds in the head and impairment of hearing. When the extension is downward the voice becomes hoarse or whispering and unmanageable; cough comes on, with expectoration and emaciation, to be followed, too often, by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which is flattening of the nose.

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others the prominent feeling is that of melancholy or depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope for himself, and none for his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by continuity of surface along the natural air-passages to the substance of the lungs, thus causing Consumption and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are called to aid in expelling its destructive enemy. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, diminished, and finally arrested, and whereby the ulcerated surface is healed and restored to its normal condition.

By means of new and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able in Catarrh and in all other affections of the respiratory organs to apply his remedies directly to the desired locality. Treatment is thus made more efficient as well as less disagreeable. In many cases the first application of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

The net increase in the ordinary expenses of the County for 1868, over those of 1867, is $23,365. The following contrasting table will show the material variations of expenditures:

Appropriations.	1867.	1868.	Increase.
No. 11.—County Jail,	10,170 83	12,408 56	2,237 73

" 37.—Western Penitentiary,	7,580 43	10,604 20	3,023 77

Nearly one-half this increase is for the Triennial Assessment of Taxes under the advanced compensation to Assessors. On April 1st, 1868, the remaining seven per cent. bonds authorized by Act of Assembly, $125,000, have been issued to, and negotiated at par with the Dollar Savings Bank, for use of the Board of Managers of the Workhouse and Inebriate Asylum, of which $13,000 have been redeemed. The balance outstanding will be retired within four years, from the proceeds of the Special Tax of one mill. Notwithstanding this addition to the Funded Debt, the net "Deficit County Liability" on January 1st, 1869, exceeded that of January 1st, 1868, only $13,398.47.

LIVE STOCK ON HAND.

5 head of Horses, 16 head of Cows, 6 Heifers, 2 Bulls, 10 head of Cottswold Sheep, 45 head of Stock Hogs.

In all respects the "Home" and Farm are in better condition than ever before.

INSANE.

We have had an average of 26 patients at Western Penn'a. Hospital, at Dixmont, during the year.

The number at the close of the year was 26, not counting those charged to County Commissioners.

We keep none of this class needing the care or restraint of an insane hospital, at the "Home"—believing it due to all who are so unfortunate as to require that kind of attention, that they should be permitted to enjoy all the benefits provided by the Commonwealth for their welfare.

Of course it costs more to keep them there than it would at our "Home," but believing it our duty to do the best we can for those not competent to take care of themselves, we continue to keep them at said Hospital. Rate per week $3,00, and clothing extra at cost prices.

We hope the people who foot the bills may be satisfied; if not, they must elect Directors holding sentiments akin to their own.

The last two years we reported our accounts as unsettled with the W. Pa. Hospital, owing to a difference of opinion as to their correctness.

Thus a large amount had accumulated against our institution as may be seen in our statements of accounts. We have pleasure in now saying that all said accounts, up to and including the 31st of December, 1868, have been settled and paid on terms satisfactory to our Board.

We have paid to Controller of Allegheny county, during the year 1868, for insane patients committed by Court, whose "Legal Settlements" were said to be in our District, $1,511 47.

Moses Chess, Esq., left our Board in October, having declined a re-election.

James G. Murray, Esq., succeeded Mr. Chess.

In the month of December, the following named persons were unanimously re-elected to serve the ensuing year:

James M. McElroy, Superintendent.
James Mc. Porter, Farmer.
Miss Mary H. Jordan, Matron.
Miss Emily A. Barry, Teacher.
Rev. C. G. Braddock, Chaplain.
Dr. Robert L. Walker, Physician.

The members of our Board take pleasure in bearing testimony both as to the ability and fidelity of the officers of the "Home," as manifested in the discharge of their several duties.

We are sorry to have to say that Miss Mary L. McCoy, our former efficient teacher, was compelled to resign her situation on account of ill health, and the vacancy was filled by the election of Miss Emily A. Barry.

Our Farm and Home are at Woodville Post Office, on Chartiers Creek, South Fayette Township, and two miles from the village of Mansfield, on the Pan-Handle Rail Road. The Board meets for transacting business at the Home on the second Thursday of every month.

Names of the Directors and their Post Office address:

John F. Dravo, Pittsburgh, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania.
James G. Murray, Moorehead, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania.
Robert H. Davis, Allegheny, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania.
